DO NOT MAIL THIS WORKSHEET.

The FAFSA on the Web Worksheet provides a preview of the questions that you may be asked while completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA*) online at fafsa.gov or via the myStudentAid mobile app.

You must complete and submit a FAFSA form to apply for federal student aid and for most state and college aid. Write down notes to help you easily complete your FAFSA form anytime on or after October 1, 2021. CA

See the table to the right for state deadlines. Your application must be submitted by midnight Central time. Also pay attention to the symbols that may be listed after your state deadline. Check with your high school counselor or your college's financial aid administrator about other deadlines. The Federal deadline is June 30, 2023.

- This Worksheet is optional and should only be completed if you plan to use fafsa.gov or the myStudentAid mobile app.
- · Sections in purple are for parent information.
- This Worksheet does not include all the questions from the FAFSA form. The questions that are included are ordered as they appear on FAFSA on the Web. When you are online, you may be able to skip some questions based on your answers to earlier questions.

Applying is easier with the IRS Data Retrieval Tool!

Students and parents who have filed their 2020 federal tax return may be able to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool to easily, accurately and securely transfer their tax information into the FAFSA form.

Sign your FAFSA form with an FSA ID!

For information about the FSA ID, including how to apply, go to StudentAid.gov/fsaid.

Your FSA ID allows you to electronically sign your FAFSA form. If you are providing parent information, one parent must also sign your FAFSA form. To sign electronically, your parent should also apply for Free help is available!

You do not have to pay to get help or submit your FAFSA form. Submit your FAFSA form free online at fafsa.gov. Federal Student Aid provides free help online at fafsa.gov or you can call 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243).

Dependent Student Status

Based on your answers to the dependency status questions, you are considered a "dependent" student. This means you must provide parental information. Select the "I will provide information about my parent(s)" option and select "Continue" to continue to "Parent Demographics" section.

If you have a special circumstance and are unable to provide parental information, under very limited circumstances, you may be able to submit your FAFSA® form without parental information. Select the "I am unable to provide information about my parent(s)" option and select "Continue" to get additional information. ?

- I will provide information about my parent(s).
- I am unable to provide information about my parent(s).

Who is the parent for FAFSA purposes?

- Your biological and/or adoptive parents are considered your legal parents.
 - Must report information for both biological or adoptive parents if they are married or unmarried and living together
- Grandparents, foster parents, legal guardians, older brothers or sisters, and aunts and uncles are not considered parents unless they have legally adopted you.

Married:

Both parents

Unmarried but living together:

Both parents

Never married and not living together:

Parent the student lived with most*

Divorced:

Parent the student lived with most*

Remarried:

Parent the student lived with most* and stepparent

Widowed:

Surviving parent

*If the student did not live with one parent more than the other, look at the parent who provided the most financial support.

Determining which parent information to include

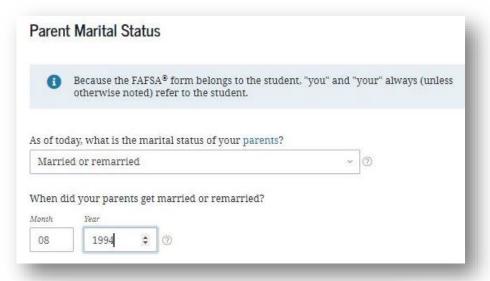

Students with undocumented parents

Parent authentication

Parent Eligible for IRS DRT

Applying is faster and easier with the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (DRT)!

Based on your responses, we recommend that you, the parents, transfer your information from the IRS into this FAFSA form. The IRS DRT allows you to link to the IRS website and securely transfer original IRS tax return information into the FAFSA form.

If you use the IRS DRT, you may not have to provide additional IRS documentation later for the student to qualify for federal student aid.

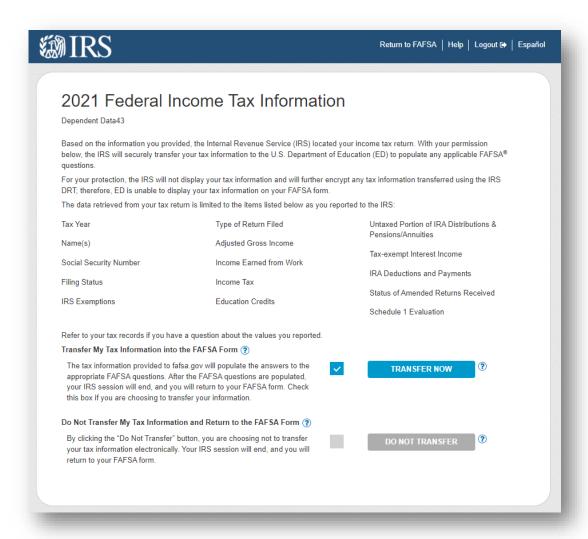

Arriving at IRS website

- Authorized user okay
- Enter tax return filing status
- Enter address information

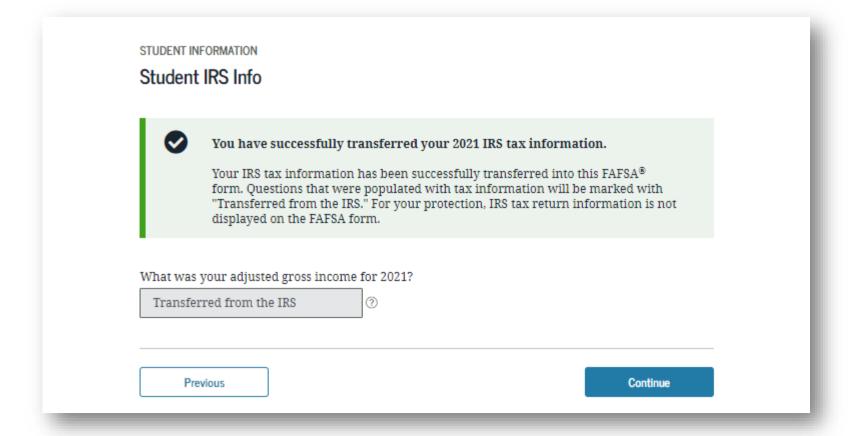

Transferring data

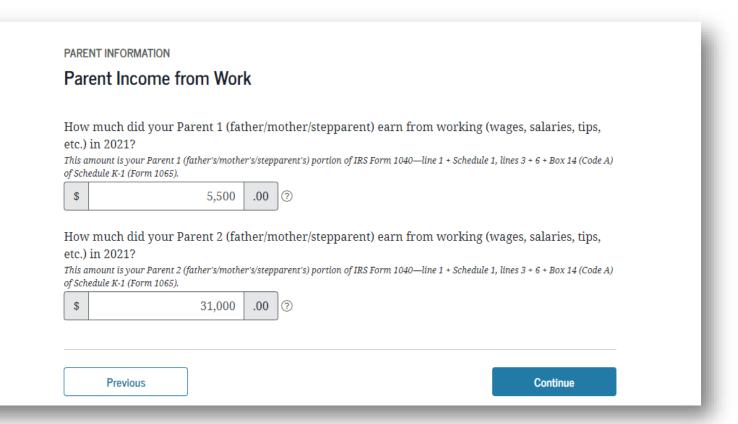

- If tax information is available, select first statement and then "Transfer Now"
- Will be returned to the FAFSA
- Will not see transferred data

Data transferred is indicated

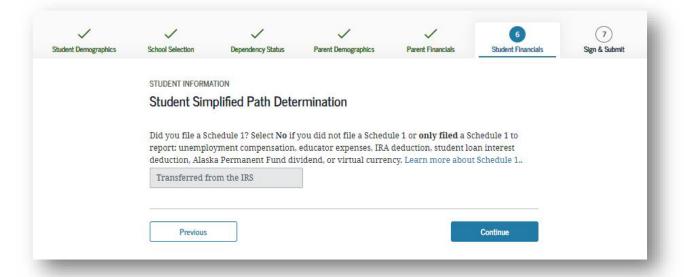

Income earned from work
